

SIR KNIGHTS IN A GRAND PARADE BOTH ARMIES RACING FOR MUKDEN

VIEWS OF THE PARADE TAKEN THIS MORNING BY A TRIBUNE ARTIST

TEN THOUSAND TEMPLARS IN A GREAT PARADE.

Oakland Commandery Makes An Excellent Showing—Visiting Knights Are Cheered By the Crowds.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6.—Ten thousand Knights Templar marched through the gaily decorated streets of this city today inspired by the music of forty bands and the cheers of many thousands of spectators who lined every foot of the way.

The order of formation included 12 grand divisions.

The parade started in the heart of the city, wound in and out of the downtown district, thence out Market street to Van Ness avenue, where it counted march and was reviewed by Grand Master Stoddard and the other officers of the Grand Encampment.

Governor Pardee, Mayor Schmitt and many other State and city officials also saw the procession pass in review.

At the head of the line was a squadron of mounted police commanded by Sir Knight George W. Wittman followed by Sir C. L. Field, grand captain-general of California and his staff. In the first division rode H. B. Stoddard, grand master of the Grand Encampment of the United States; the other grand officers and the Earl of Euston, grand master of the great priory of England and Wales. Their guard of honor consisted of California Commandery No. 1, each member being mounted on a black horse.

There were two other mounted commanderies in the parade—Dewitt and Clinton of Virginia City, Nev., and the Corinthians of Philadelphia, making 1200 mounted men in all.

Following the first division came the various Eastern commanderies headed by their officers and the several drill corps which will tomorrow compete for splendid trophies.

Then came the commanderies from the interior cities of California and other Pacific Coast points all of which attracted much attention as they brought the long parade to a close.

The parade was one of the finest ever seen in San Francisco. It occupied nearly three hours in passing a given point, though at no time was there any protracted delay. The advance along the line of march of the more largely represented Eastern commanderies was signalized by continuous cheers and when the band heading the Kentucky contingent struck up "Dixie," the enthusiasm of the spectators was unbounded.

New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois made especially fine showings, though so many commanderies excelled in various points that a critical comparison is impossible. As was to have been expected, the Knights who reside on the Pacific Coast turned out in full strength and though most of them brought up the rear of the column, none were denied their meed of applause.

The first session of the grand encampment was held this afternoon. At the same time Oakland Commandery held a reception and open house was maintained at all headquarters.

Tonight there will be a reception to Grand Master Stoddard, numerous receptions to other notables, an exhibition drill by Malta Commandery, an open air concert and the presentation of a Chinese play by Oriental actors in an American Theatre.

OAKLAND KNIGHTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6.—One of the great features in today's imposing parade of Knights Templar and which must have a lasting impression upon strangers as well as people from the other side of the bay was the knightly bearing and precision in the Templar tactics of Oakland Commandery No. 1 K of T, of Oakland.

Although this Commandery had entered no drill team for trophy contest and though it had made no pretensions to excellence in its skill on the march it still displayed an efficiency which was all the more remarkable because of the lack of display which characterized the movements of the huge number of the Commanderies in line.

FORMATION.

Unlike the militia and regulars, Knights Templar have no formation known as column of fours. The plumed gentlemen have instead a column of three with sections of six and divisions of twelve.

As a rule nearly all the commanderies from abroad marched in column of three in which it is comparatively easy to keep a picturesque alignment.

The first notable exception to this primary formation was that of the drill corps of Louisville Commandery, which wheeled on to Market street from Montgomery in form of commandery front maintaining in line so perfect that for the first time in the parade up to that time—and the parade was then nearly an hour old—people on all sides recognized the maneuver with rounds of applause.

The interest of the scene was heightened as the accompanying band played "Old Kentucky Home." Then the applause was fortified by cheers and as the corps passed the intersection of Market and Kearney streets they were snatched by a squadron of newspaper artists who felicitated themselves that they had gotten everything save the music and the cheers.

There was a long and somewhat monotonous interval between the passing of these machine-like Knights from the Blue Grass region and those from Oakland, but the watchers were rewarded

IN CLOSE QUARTERS.

Oyama is Hotly Pursuing the Russian Forces.

MUKDEN, September 6.—40 p. m.—The retreat of General Kuropatkin's army is being carried out in good order despite the terrible condition of the roads rendered sodden by the rains which fell yesterday and today, which mire the lumbering guns and heavy transport trains.

Long lines of commissariat wagons, drawn by steaming mules, horses and even bullocks are gaining their way north over the soaking, cut-up main road from Yentai. Behind them come long trains of artillery and back of them still Kuropatkin's army. The Japanese are hanging on Kuropatkin's flanks keeping the Russian engaged in a continuous rear-guard action. The progress of the retreating army has been slow owing to the necessity of first getting through the baggage and guns, but the heads of the commissariat trains already have passed through Mukden and are continuing the way towards the north.

The main Japanese army is marching up along the roads eastward of the Russian lines of retreat which converge at Mukden. Another Japanese force is also heading for Mukden from the westward coming from the direction of the Liao River.

Marshal Oyama seems to be making a race for Mukden. He evidently has great superiority in numbers especially in artillery.

As this dispatch was filed the correspondent of the Associated Press could hear the booming of the Japanese cannon which are in play fourteen miles from Mukden.

The skies are black and the air is stifling with the sense of suffocation which is felt here before a storm breaks—strange harmony between the elements and the menacing attitude of the contending armies.

NO DIVIDEND.

NEW YORK, September 6.—The following official statement has been issued: Owing to the continued decrease in earnings resulting from conditions in Colorado, the directors of the Colorado and Southern have deemed it wise not to declare a dividend on the first preferred.

RETREAT IN ORDER.

Both Armies Are Now Racing For Mukden.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 6.—3 08 p. m.—Apparently the War Office is not greatly disturbed by fear that Field Marshal Oyama will cut off General Kuropatkin before he reaches Mukden.

According to the latest advices the Russian retreat is being effected in good order.

The heads of transport trains passed through Mukden yesterday at noon and the fact that the baggage trains continued on their way northward of Mukden the War Office explains does not mean that Kuropatkin is bound further north at his time, but a purely tactical precautionary measure even if he intended to hold Mukden the Russian army would be in the operations of an army losing the baggage train fourteen miles and the ambulance corps four miles in the rear of the main body of troops.

The news from the front indicates that Oyama having failed to surround Kuropatkin at Liao Yang is pressing Kuropatkin's rear with all the power of his tired troops, while hurrying forward a column which crossed the Taisse River at Bentshu thirty miles northeast of Liao Yang and five miles due east of Yentai station in the hope

FIGHT AT HARBIN.

Kuropatkin Will Make a Long Retreat Before He Battles.

PARIS, September 6.—A dispatch of the Japanese legation today says he expects the battle deciding the future of Manchuria will occur at Harbin as General Kuropatkin's flight has been too hurried to permit him to entrench at Mukden.

Owing to the distance of Harbin from Mukden about 325 miles and the approach of winter, the battle, the official added, probably will not occur before Spring.

In the meantime if Russia desires peace she would be able to open negotiations but the Japanese government would never make the first propositions as they are calculating that the war will last three years and are making preparations accordingly.

The Temps quotes an eminent Russian which is understood to mean the Russian embassy here is follows:

Russia will make the first proposition for peace. Furthermore she will entertain no proposition for intervention even if it come from the powers having the greatest sympathy for her and which she considers her friends. This is the unalterable determination of our emperor and government.

HOW THE ARMIES STAND.

FIGHTING A CONTINUOUS REAR-GUARD ACTION WITH THE JAPANESE WHO HANG TO HIS FLANKS, KUROPATKIN CONTINUES TO FALL BACK OVER ROADS MADE SODDEN BY TWO DAYS HEAVY RAIN. THE HEADS OF HIS LONG COMMISSARIAT TRAINS HAVE PASSED THROUGH MUKDEN AND CONTINUE NORTHWARD. IT IS REPORTED THAT IN SPITE OF THE BAD ROADS AND PERSISTENT ATTACKS ON THE RUSSIAN REAR, THE RETREAT IS ORDERLY. DETAILS OF THE FIGHTING AND THE EXACT POSITION OF THE OPPOSING ARMIES ARE LACKING. THE RUSSIAN GENERAL STAFF, WHILE ADMITTING IT HAS RECEIVED NO OFFICIAL ADVICES SINCE LAST EVENING, DENIES THE REPORT THAT KUROPATKIN'S REAR-GUARD HAS BEEN ANNIHILATED.

FROM TOKIO COMES THE OFFICIAL REPORT THAT THE BULK OF THE RUSSIAN FORCES IS STILL AT YENTAI.

WHETHER OR NOT KUROPATKIN WILL MAKE ANOTHER STAND AT MUKDEN IS NOT INDICATED IN TODAY'S ADVICES. IN ST. PETERSBURG IT IS ARGUED THAT THE FACT THAT HIS COMMISSARIAT TRAINS PASSED ON THROUGH MUKDEN DOES NOT INDICATE THAT THE RUSSIAN COMMANDER PROPOSES TO EVACUATE THE CITY WITHOUT A STRUGGLE. BUT ONLY THAT THEY ARE TAKING UP THEIR PROPER POSITIONS IN THE REAR.

PANIC AT STATION.

Great Excitement When Liao Yang Was Abandoned.

PARIS, September 6.—A dispatch to the Temps from Liao Yang, dated September 3 but delayed in transmission graphically describes the panic which occurred when it became known that the town was to be abandoned. The correspondent says:

A crowd of people rushed toward the depot. I was standing in the refreshment room of the station when three Japanese shells burst in succession about 150 feet away.

Many persons were killed and a sister of charity was wounded. The people were terrified and fled, leaving their baggage whereupon the Chinese plundered the trunks and valises, and the Cossacks grabbed the stock of champagne in the refreshment room.

Military trains continued to leave the depot regularly. I left at 2 o'clock for Yentai where a battle with General Kuropatkin has already begun.

A Russian officer who had back the first Japanese assault on Liao Yang told me that he never saw such fury. The Japanese hurled themselves in masses against the barbed wire defenses and fell into trap ditches but they continued their steady advance.

At Yentai General Kuropatkin has the disadvantage of being on a plain while Kuropatkin has the advantage of having possession of the crests of neighboring hills.

BOMBARDING PORT ARTHUR

Russians Expect a General Land and Sea Attack Tomorrow.

CHE FOO, September 6.—10 15 p. m.—Firing at Port Arthur was heard here to-night. Two Chinese interpreters belonging to the official household of Lieutenant General Stoessel commander of the military forces at Port Arthur have been caught spying at Shushien and Palungshan.

They were executed by the Japanese.

Chinese who arrived here to day from Port Arthur declare that the Russian garrison expects a general land and sea attack on September 7.

On September 2 and 3 the Japanese bombarded the fortifications severely and two Russian guns on a fort near Rihlungshan were dismounted. The recent entrance into Port Arthur of a large steamship carrying provisions, chiefly flour, has resulted in the reduction of the price of flour from $5 to $2 a bag.

HOW RUSSIANS FOUGHT AT LIAO YANG.

A. P. Correspondent Tells of the Fight Up to Moment He Was Shot.

MUKDEN September 6.—The following message describing the early events of the Japanese attack on General Stakelberg's corps southwest of Liao Yang August 20 was written on the battlefield by M. Kirilloff one of the Associated Press Russian correspondents and sent to Mukden for transmission just before the correspondent was shot through the lungs.

SAW THE BATTLE

"This morning around Liao Yang gun-thundered incessantly. The heights forming a semi-circle around the city were dotted with jets of flame and lit with black and white clouds. The spectacle was clearly visible from the water tower of Liao Yang. The Russian left alone was not engaged.

At 7 a. m. the correspondent rode to the Russian center where the Japanese were concentrating in an attempt to break through and climbed the neighboring heights following a detachment sent to relieve the skirmishers who have been covering the battery commanded by Pokotloff one of the heroes of Hulin cheng. The Japanese according to custom were shelling places where they believed the Russian reserves were located. Before the correspondent could reach the battery he had to cross a danger zone of 150 yards projectiles falling and bursting on it until the very ground seemed to quiver with wrath.

TOUCHING SCENE

There was a touching scene when the skirmishers were reached. A Russian soldier met a brother whom he had last seen in their native village. There were joyful greetings and a quick exchange of news from home. Then each went his way and settled down to the work of firing coolly and deliberately. The Japanese fire was spasmodic. Their bullets sang like birds as they sped overhead and the Russians cracked jokes about it.

Two hours later the correspondent reached the battery and found that Pokotloff and another officer had been killed. Out of six guns four were killed or wounded. Captain Tarasoff was in charge of the battery. All quiet courtesy recalled the hero of one of Count Tolstoy's novels. Fifty yards away was a splendid looking gunner whose duty it was to record the success or failure of each shot. The grim sort of death with death messengers hurrying all around him but the Russian gunner stood erect and uttered without heeding the danger to which he was exposed.

The Russian officers had not eaten anything since the previous day and the correspondent shared with them what provisions he had. The face of food caused them to realize the intensity of their hunger. Prudence urged the correspondent to leave the spot but he was fascinated.

HE WAS SHOT

Here the message ended. The officer who sent forward M. Kirilloff's dispatch.

LINES BEFORE THE EYES

Confusing, irritating, inviting curious comment, these harassing lines are the one dominating feature of all ordinary glasses made for seeing near and far.

KRYPTOK Spectacles & Eyeglasses are "Invisible" Bifocals. By a marvelously ingenious method of enclosing the reading lens within the main lens (not cementing it on), the lines are obliterated, and we have bifocals without a blemish—clean, clear, "youthful" looking glasses that persons with sensitive nerves can wear. # OYAMA MAKES REPORT.

Desperate Stand Against Kuroki Saved the Day.

TOKIO September 6.—An extended report from Field Marshal Oyama the Japanese commander in chief in the field was received in Tokio today and made public tonight. It is largely devoted to a review of the fighting which took place between August 24 and September 4.

ANOTHER BATTLE

The announcement that the Russians will retain possession of the Yentai Collieries indicates a strong possibility of a battle there. Yentai is the only colliery in Northern Manchuria and its possession is of vital importance to the Russians in connection with the operation of the railroad. Field Marshal Oyama reports a portion of the Russian troops held Yinghsu south of Yentai and that General Kuroki's right is in close touch with the Russians. He announces also that the left and center Japanese armies under the command respectively of Generals Oku and Nodzu have halted on the left bank of the Taishue river and that it is his intention to despatch a portion of them to occupy the heights and along the railroad.

BURNED BRIDGES

General Kuropatkin burned all the railroad and other bridges over the Taishue river.

The report says that the exact number of Japanese losses since August 25 is not known at present but that casualty lists are being compiled. The field marshal predicts that the losses will prove heavy.

The report does not mention the number of guns taken but it is known that sixteen guns were captured at Anping and Anshanshan and earlier reports mentioned the capture and use against the railroad station at Liao Yang of certain ten centimeter canon guns. Field Marshal Oyama says also that in spite of continuous attacks for ten days against an enemy occupying semipermanent fortifications and the resultant sacrifice that the spirit of devotion and determination of the Japanese troops is excellent.

SAVED THE DAY.

General Kuropatkin according to the report continued to receive reinforcements until August 13 and his final strength consisted of 12 full divisions. The losses sustained by the Russians are not known to the Japanese field force.

General Kuroki encountered desperate opposition in the battle on the heights to the west of Heijingfang where he fought continuously and fiercely for four days before he succeeded in dislodging the Russians. It is manifest that the stubbornness of the Russian defense at Heijingfang saved the Russian line of retreat and averted an overwhelming disaster.

STRIKERS GO BACK TO WORK.

Do Not Wait For Unions to Declare Strike Ended.

CHICAGO September 6.—The beginning of the end of the stock-yards strike came early this morning when, according to the packer more than one thousand of the strikers applied for their old jobs and were taken back.

Men began to show up a few hours before the time set for a meeting of the allied trades conference board which representing twenty-two trades involved in the strike was assembled to be the general impression to consider the question of substituting the unions whether the strike should be called off or not. There was some talk among the strikers at the yards about terms of settlement.

Officials of the packing companies however declared that no terms of settlement had been reached that strikers applying for their old places would be reinstated without discrimination but no agreement would be made with the union.

Meetings of all local unions involved had been called for to-day to hear the result of the deliberation of the Allied trades board. But man of the men who had been idle for eight weeks feared to await their action. So it was that a thousand applied for work. Expecting all would be ordered by the unions to go back to work they went to day to make use of their places.

RUSSIANS ARE NOT PLEASED.

Do Not Like the Showing Made By Their Men.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 6 108 p. m.—While insisting that Marshal Oyama missed his main object at Liao Yang most of the Russian papers do not disguise their profound disappointment over the result of the battle of Liao Yang. The Russian invalid opinion of the army however is of the opinion that General Kuropatkin both strategically and technically got everything possible out of Liao Yang saying.

It enabled him to cope with an army very much superior to his field Marshal Oyama was compelled to waste several tens of thousands of men to capture a position which is of no importance now that Kuropatkin has left. It is evident that Oyama's plans miscarried since he failed to surround and inflict a decisive blow on the Russian army.

The other view presented by the Russians as follows.

The fact that Kuropatkin was compelled to leave Liao Yang has not only military but political significance.

It is no use concealing the fact that the evacuation of Liao Yang was a surprise to the Russians. Everybody was led to believe that the hour had arrived for a decided struggle. It was thus we interpreted Kuropatkin's telegram saying the men were thirsting for an opportunity to meet the foe. Lashing out hopes means a prolongation of the campaign. The moment for taking the offensive is now indefinitely passed. This will inevitably influence the fate of Port Arthur and the further development of the Japanese operations. The evacuations of Liao Yang will have an effect upon China which is already in a state of nervous tension under the influence of Japanese agitation. The Japanese of course will do their best to restore Mukden to China and China must foot the bill. We cannot deceive ourselves any longer with the idea that by retreating into the heart of Manchuria we are gaining time and adding our forces whereas the Japanese are lengthening their line of communications and therefore losing strength. Our ideas of the military strength of Japan were far from correct. It is now known that they can increase their forces as well as we can. We fully believe in our ultimate success, but it is idle to blink at facts. We shall have to make heavy sacrifices in order to protect the vital interests of the empire.

POOLS MEET TO DISCUSS PRICES

NEW YORK September 6.—Meetings of the steel plate beam and billet pools were begun here today and probably will continue for several days. It was given out that no statement of the proceedings would be had until after the final adjournment. According to a Wall Street report the meetings will result either in a reduction of from $4 to $7 a ton on heavy material or declaration of an open market.

RUMORS OF UPRISING ARE DISCREDITED

LONDON September 6.—Official reports received at the Foreign Office here discredit the rumors that an uprising similar to that of the Boxers is imminent in China. It is declared that the disturbances reported are of a local character and that the Chinese Government is summarily dealing with them.

DESERT BECAUSE OF BEANS.

Three Young French Sailors Object to Bostonian Diet.

Three young French boys, Detave Camant, Alexander Camant and Rene Howel aged 15, 18 and 20 years respectively, deserted from the French ship Yvanon moored at Long Wharf yesterday.

They were taken into custody today by the police. The reason of their desertion according to the stories they tell us that they were fed on beans nothing more and night. This Boston diet proved disagreeable to such an extent that they fled trusting that Providence would provide for them in a strange land among strange people. Information was sent to the police by the ship's captain on a boat the run away, who shipped from Nantes France. The youths have no other complaint particularly the beans were simply not what they could stand.

SPORTING NEWS OF HOLIDAY SEASON

M'GAVIN PICKED TO WIN.

BOB WHITNEY SAYS HE WILL BE NEXT CHAMPION IN THE TENNIS SINGLES.

After Drummond MacGavin had defeated Little Clarence Griffin yesterday on the San Rafael courts in the tennis tournament, Bob Whitney, formerly champion of the coast in doubles, picked MacGavin as the next champion in the singles. MacGavin has been playing a good game and yesterday he smashed, drove and lobbed in a manner seldom equaled on the San Rafael courts.

Yesterday was devoted almost entirely to the men's doubles. There were two matches in the third round of the singles, one in the ladies' doubles and one in the ladies' singles. The latter match was one of the best of the day and resulted in the defeat of Miss May Sutton, the national champion, and her partner, Miss M. Seymour of Southern California. Miss Florence Sutton and Miss Gabrielle Dobbins were the winners. Their victory was largely due to the fact that they played almost continuously to Miss Seymour. Miss Sutton's few chances were handled in championship form, but she did not get enough to win. Miss Seymour played a clever game, but her opponents simply wore her down. Miss Sutton and Miss Seymour won the first set 6-4. In the second set they failed to get a game. The third and final set was a tie-break affair, but Miss Florence Sutton and Miss Dobbins managed to win.

Only the preliminary rounds of the doubles were played, but some good matches resulted. The first ladies' doubles came in the first match, when Claude Wayne and Robert Vail defeated S. Sinsbaugh and T. Hendrick. The latter team was considered by many the most likely candidates for the championship honors. Their defeat came after the full five sets had been played.

Sinsbaugh met with an accident in the first set, which, no doubt, had something to do with the result. In jumping for a high ball he twisted his ankle and in trying to save himself wrenched his wrist. It was necessary for him to have the latter member placed in a plaster cast at the conclusion of the match. Sinsbaugh played on, nevertheless, but of course, he was at a disadvantage.

Harry Rolfe and C. Gardner played good tennis against the Donnell brothers and succeeded in winning their way to the semi-final round.

The ladies' singles match resulted in a victory for Miss Ethel Ratcliffe of Berkeley over Miss G. Dobbins of Los Angeles. The latter did some splendid driving, but Miss Ratcliffe was too steady for her. She won her few points herself, but relied upon her opponent missing them.

The day's scores follow:
Men's singles, second round—J. D. MacGavin beat C. Griffin, 6-3, 6-5, 6-4, 6-2.

Men's doubles, preliminary round—P. Murdoch and J. D. MacGavin beat G. and Swain by default; Heath and Hunter beat Innes and Adams, by default; C. F. Wayne and R. H. Vail beat T. Hendrick and S. Sinsbaugh, 6-7, 6-3, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3; W. Allen and G. Baker beat Smith and Smith, 6-3, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

First round—Miller and Sherwood beat Fatio and Sweeney, by default; Overton and Elliott beat Brabant and Nourse, by default; Donnell brothers beat Mann and Gaynes, 8-5, 6-3, 6-2.

Second round—Rolfe and Gardner beat Donnell brothers, 9-7, 6-4, 6-4; Whitney and Griffin vs. Dunlap and Foley, 7-5, 1-6, 6-4, 6-10, postponed; Vail and Wayne vs. Allen and Baker, 6-4, 3-6, 6-6, 6-3, postponed. Ladies' singles—Miss E. Ratcliffe beat Miss G. Dobbins, 6-11, 6-9, 6-3; Ladies' doubles—Miss Florence Sutton and Miss G. Dobbins beat Miss May Sutton and Miss Seymour, 4-6, 6-0, 6-4.

NEIL MAY MEET
BOWKER.

AMERICAN BANTAM-WEIGHT OF-FERED MATCH WITH THE ENGLISH CHAMPION.

The English sportsman across the pond are very eager to see little Frankie Neil in a fifteen-round bout with Jim Bowker, the English champion. A cable dispatch has been sent to Neil advising him that he can have a match with Bowker before the National Sporting Club of London on October 17, and the American bantam-weight champion has decided to accept provided the weight and other details suit him.

Neil would like to look over "hold Hingland" and if satisfactory arrangements can be made he will sail across the puddle within two weeks. Neil says he is ready to meet the English champion at 116 pounds, weigh in at 2 o'clock light day. He also wants $500 for expenses.

The English club offers $2500 for the mill. Also Neil can get a side bet with the English champion if he so desires.

FOOTBALL MEN ARE ANGRY.

INDIGNANT BECAUSE THEY HAVE TO PAY FOR GYMNASIUM PRIVILEGES.

The football squad from Coach Hopper down are indignant at the announcement that they, as well as all others enjoying privileges of the gymnasium, will be obliged to pay the regulation $2 fee for locker and towels.

Professor Magee, director of physical culture, states emphatically that the fee will be charged the football men the same as all others. "We are here," said he, "to enforce the regulations made by the regents, and the regulation of the regents on this matter is that a fee of $2 per annum is required of all users of the gymnasium, the student in return to receive the use of a locker and fresh towels. I consider the regulation most excellent one for the students and, in fact, there are special reasons why the football men should be pleased to avail themselves of the privileges gained by payment of the fee. It would be a commendable act on the part of the Associated Students to foot the bill for the football squad, but that matter rests with them, not with us. We are here to carry out regulations. In the general rebuilding and enlargement of the gymnasium, which is to begin as soon as bids can be received, the football men will be the first to receive special attention. The very best of everything will be provided. The athletes will have the use of the entire annex, a part of which they now occupy, thus giving them over twice as much room as at present. In this will be placed the best steel lockers, three rubbing rooms and every convenience and appliance for the special work in hand." Coach Hopper and Captain Strout voiced the sentiment of the football men in no uncertain terms. "It is simply a case of charging a man to work for his college," said on the football men, "and we are determined to have the privilege of expending their time and best energy for the college."

At the recent meeting of the executive committee of the A. S. U. C. the matter was discussed but no decisive action was taken. In past years the A. S. U. C. has footed the bills of the football men similar to this, but what they will do in this matter remains to be decided.

SIGNING BALL PLAYERS.

FRESHMEN DIAMOND WORKERS
MET THIS AFTERNOON AT BERKELEY.

All freshmen baseball men of the University of California met today at 3:15 p. m. in the training quarters in the gymnasium for the purpose of signing up for practice. Regular practice will start Thursday and varsity Captain Heilmuller will announce the captain before that date.

The class games will all be played in the spring. It is possible that the freshmen will play practice games with the varsity. Full training in the past has interfered with football, hence it was deemed advisable to do most of the work in the fall.

A few practice games will, however, be arranged for the freshmen nine this term.

FIRST OUTING OF CROSS COUNTRY.

The Cross Country Club of the Alameda High School took their first outing last Saturday. The trip was to Diamond canyon, the party starting at 4 o'clock the morning.

The day proved to be an ideal one for such a jaunt. Arriving at the canyon some were taken on the grass and several matters of business discussed. The following officers were elected: Miss Shaw, head of the Latin department, president; Miss French, a senior student, vice president; Miss Hoch of the middle class, secretary.

After resting for a short time the return trip was made, the members arriving at their homes in time for dinner. All were firm in their belief that they had had a very enjoyable time.

The club, which is composed of nearly fifty of the most prominent young ladies of the Alameda High School, was chartered by Miss Hawthorn and Miss Shaw.

BOWLING.

Bowling was good on the Oakland bowling alleys during the day-time yesterday. A great many lady bowlers took advantage of the fact that their husbands were off work so they brought them to the alleys and beat them at their own game.

A match game, the first of the ten pin season, is coming off on Wednesday night at 7:30 between Link Johnson, the champion small boy bowler and his partner against A. Case and H. Bowley.

It is pleasing to see a notice up at the Alleys that loafers are not permitted or desired.

Quite a number of private match games are being rolled every week.

THE GIRL AND THE BEE.

A Story of the Ignorance of a City Girl. The city girl coming down to breakfast at the farm house was observing a plate of honey on the table said, "Oh, I see you keep a bee."

That's about the way some people talk about the blight of baldness—just as if a bald head was something one got all at once instead of being the result of long depletion by an insidious germ which thieves upon the roots of the hair and succumbs to only one known remedy, Newbro's Herpicide.

Newbro's Herpicide is not a tonic any more than electricity is a fluid. It is an exterminator, pure and simple. Destroy the cause you remove the effect.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit. Mch. Bowman & Co., Special Agents.

OSCAR GRAHAM OF THE OAKLAND BASEBALL TEAM.

OAKLAND NO LONGER LAST IN PENNANT RACE.

Locals Make It Four Straight With Portland and So Climb Out of the Cellar.

Oakland is no longer in the cellar. The Commuters have forsaken that dump place for fourth position in the pennant race. Portland now occupies the dark hole with San Francisco next in line. Glance at the following table and see how the others stand:

| Clubs—        | Played. | Won. | Lost. | Per. |
|---------------|---------|------|-------|------|
| Tacoma        | 38      | 23   | 15    | .605 |
| Los Angeles   | 36      | 21   | 15    | .583 |
| Seattle       | 39      | 19   | 20    | .487 |
| Oakland       | 40      | 18   | 22    | .450 |
| San Francisco | 38      | 17   | 21    | .447 |
| Portland      | 39      | 17   | 22    | .437 |

Here is something peculiar. On last Labor Day, not yesterday, but a year ago, Schmidt now pitching for Oakland, but then doing the work for Brooklyn, shut out the famous New York team and the score stood 3 to 0. Yesterday, Labor Day, the same Schmidt, went on the firing line against the Portland people and shut them out and the score was 3 to 0. Guess that's going some in the black cat line. That was a great game. Schmidt pitched yesterday and the fans like him for it.

Lep Levy is all smiles. Oakland has won four straight. Enough said.

That catch of Ganley's in the afternoon game when he turned around a couple of times near the fence before getting his hooks on the ball was wonder. There were two men on bases and had it not been Ganley on the spot Oakland might yet be shuddering in the cellar. Ganley has a habit of saving games. The fans are beginning to sit up and notice.

Seemed for a time yesterday afternoon that Iberg was never going to come down.

The Oaks pulled off two double-plays

MUCH DEPENDED ON THE RESULT OF GAME.

How many of the fans know what depended upon the result of the morning contest yesterday between Oakland and Portland?

To be sure the result would determine whether or not the Commuters would get out of the basement and whether Smith would buy Jones the hat or the girl in the plumed eadgear purchase a box of chocolates, for her blond friend but the real worry was whether or not Oscar Graham, Oakland's southpaw pitcher, would remain with Lohman's men.

If Oscar had lost yesterday's contest he was to be presented with his leaving papers; if he won, well, he could stay with us for a while longer. Graham knew this when he stepped in to the box yesterday morning. It had yesterday. And the team is playing great ball all around. The oldest fan has awakened.

Dr. Moskman batted for Streib yesterday and tore off a beautiful one that scored a run.

Nadeau's hop got to working yesterday and he was caught off base. "Dug" is going to impose a fine for the sleep.

The change from Los Angeles to San Francisco seems to agree with George Wheeler. He noticed a shut-out game against his old team mates yesterday.

By winning from Seattle in the afternoon yesterday, Tacoma made it seven out of eight games. Overall allowed only two of the six slugs to reach the second station.

Yesterday morning the Seattle players took their old-time grip on their bats, making thirteen hits off of St. Vrain.

Overall is certainly delivering the goods. He has pitched two shut-out games since last Friday.

Murphy the California player recently by Seattle, made good with the fans yesterday by making a home run at a critical time.

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York team sustained a severe dislocation to his left ankle yesterday. The New York players had just won the second game from Boston, and the fans rushed out into the field to lift the players on their shoulders. The players tripped before the crowd and was trampled upon. McGraw was taken to a hospital where his injuries were examined. He will not be able to leave his bed for several days.

RACES OPEN AT STOCKTON.

EVENTS ARE ALL OF THE EXCIT-ING KIND WITH CLOSE FINISHES.

Probably the largest crowd that ever attended a first day, turned out to witness the racing at Stockton yesterday. The events were all of the exciting kind, such as keeps the spectators on their feet. Three times out of five finishes, the horses were so close together that the crowd were unable to ascertain the winner, and had to wait for the judges to place the contestants. The last event, in which Box Rider spread-eagled his field, being the only exception.

The riding honors were easily taken by Henderson, who rode three winners out of four mounts and finished second, only losing by a head on the fourth. It was largely due to his excellent horsemanship that Sugden and Uppercut finished first in their respective races.

For the first day the betting was brisk, and talent had a good day of it. There are over 150 horses now on the track, and such exciting races is expected during the week.

It is estimated that 40,000 people assembled at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. In the feature event, W. E. Jennings' mare, Dainty, ridden by the California jockey, Hildebrand won the Ocean Handicap at a mile, in a field containing some of the best Eastern crack-collars.

Alan-a-Dale, the favorite finished second, losing by a neck. When the racers came down the homestretch, Dainty was in the fourth place, the mare gradually worked her way up until she was even with the favorite, who was leading. Lyne on that horse, evidently underrated the ability of Dainty, for he did not commence to ride until it was too late.

Sydney Page's Woodsway, who packed 128 pounds was also ridden by Lyne and although a heavily backed favorite, failed to finish in the money. He was started poorly and his rider was unable to get him in a position to win. S. Brown's Aggie, a 10 to 1 shot won the event, Handazara finishing second and Bedouin third.

The feature event, the Handicap, was won by Dainty, ridden by the California jockey, Hildebrand. The time was 1:58 2-5. Auctioneer, piloting the filly gave her plenty of leeway and she soon had quite a gap between herself and the remainder of the racers, which none of them were able to close. Phenomenal finished second, beating Miss Crawford by a head. By winning this event, Tokalon brought to her owner over $6,650.

The first race of the day also furnished quite an attraction. Bearcatcher, the California horse took the lead from the start and was never caught throughout the entire race. The six furlongs were covered in 1:12 3-5. A line can be drawn on Bearcatcher's speed when it is understood that he covered one of the furlongs in 0:30 2-5.

The mist was picked to win the fifth race and was backed heavily. Miss Inez, who was neglected by the bettors took the vent. The favorite could do no better than to take third place.

Schwartzwald took the steeple-chase without difficulty. Lingo was second and Allegiance third.

There were over 10,000 persons on hand to witness the opening of the Grand Circuit races at Charter Oak Park, Hartford, yesterday. They were rewarded for coming out for the races were all exciting, taking more than three heats to decide each one. In the event of the day, Stanley Dillon was defeated in the 2:10 trot. Geers who was driving him succeeded in getting the horse under the first in two heats. In the third heat, the horse made a bad break and got only within the distance after a hard drive. This last pace fired the animal so that he was not able to get within the distance flag in the fourth.

The event was finally taken by Bad News, who took the first and final heats.

Buxton finished first in the 2:14 trot, although the General was made the favorite.

"TEDDY" HOWARD
IS GIVEN OVATION

BERKELEYANS GREET THE COL-
LEGE GIRL AT YE LIBERTY THEATRE.

A decided compliment was tendered Miss Edna Howard, the young actress who has just graduated from the University of California, when a large number of students and residents of the college town assembled at Ye Liberty Theatre last night to witness her first appearance in the "Two Orphans." Miss Howard had proved her histrionic ability in numerous amateur attractions given under the auspices of the University and much was expected of her last night.

Realizing that she was the cynosure of eyes of her friends, Miss Howard, acquitted herself with extraordinary credit. "Marianne" is a character that is particularly well suited to Miss Howard's temperament. Her girlish appearance was heightened with a pleasing costume. Miss Howard was given full opportunity to display her emotional powers when she represented herself as going into exile to save the woman who had befriended her.

Throughout the play the college girl gave full evidence of her splendid ability and her friends and the audience in general were not slow to show their approval by continued applause.

A little sin may be the seed of a large sorrow.

HORSE OWNER IS ARRESTED.

RICHARD RIPLEY OF OAKLAND
STEALS COMPANION'S GOLD
WATCH AT ST. LOUIS.

Richard Ripley, racehorse owner, and who is well known in this city, has been arrested at St. Louis on a charge of having stolen and pawned for $50 a gold watch belonging to his room-mate, John E. Case, a resident of Oakland. He has acknowledged his guilt.

Ripley is the owner of Colati, a horse that has run on the local tracks and which is now on the St. Louis track. He has some speed, but was not given an opportunity to often show it here. It is claimed by Ripley that he was drunk when he took the watch. He says that he used the money obtained from the pawnbroker to play the races, as he had been told that such a watch would be able to restore the stolen property.

STARS ARE DEFEATED
BY THE SUNSETS.

In a lively game of baseball, the Sunsets defeated the Sixth Street Stars by the score of 5 to 3 yesterday afternoon. The feature of the game was the pitching of Baird, when with one man out and two men on bases he struck out the next two batters. On Admission Day the same teams will cross bats at First and Adelene. The Sunsets would like to hear from any team under sixteen years of age. The line-up is as follows: Baseos, catcher, Jacobson, pitcher, Zelloch, first base; Flores, second base; Baird, shortstop; Mathews, third base; Patterson, left field; Enos, center field; White, right field.

BOXING CONTESTS AT SAN MATEO.

The Empire Athletic Club of San Mateo, held its boxing contests last night and a large crowd turned out to witness the different bouts. In the main event, Tommy O'Neill knocked out Otto Goff in the first round. O'Neill completely outclassed his opponent at every stage of the game.

Andy Mattson was given the decision over Ed Younger after four hard rounds. Tom Grigby put Arthur Holt to sleep in the first round. Mike Porter won from Fred Tibbets in the third round. Tibbets put up a great fight, taking an incredible amount of punishment.

Charles Gibson won from Jack Macdonald in the third. Macdonald's opponent threw up the sponge after their man was all but out. Joe Kiln earned a decision over L. Hubbard.

NELSON GIVEN DECISION.

DEFEATS HERRERA AND IS NOW
WILLING TO FIGHT BRITT OR CORBETT.

As was bulletined by THE TRIBUNE yesterday afternoon, Aurelio Herrera lost on decision his twenty-round battle at Butte with Battling Nelson. The contest was a fierce one with both boys slugsting in every round.

By rushing his opponent, Nelson managed to smother the Mexican's ugly right hand blows. Many times did Herrera cross his right for Nelson's head, but the Chicago fighter was always so close that the punch had no force behind it. The only knockdown of the contest came in the sixteenth round. Herrera smashed his right to Nelson's jaw, and the Chicago boy went down in a heap. Under the rules Herrera had to retire to his corner and the count of nine, and by the time he got back to Nelson the latter was again steady and met his attack with a crashing right that sent the Mexican reeling to the ropes. When the gong rang for the close of this round both were wobbly.

Nelson's ability to absorb punishment stood him in good stead. He received more than he gave early in the fight, but in the latter stages he was the fresher. Herrera tried to get on a match with Nelson, but Nelson steadily blocked his swings and put such stiff punches to the body that the Mexican gasped and hung on.

The decision was well received by the big crowd. Hundreds of visitors were in town attracted by the fight.

Nelson was ready to get on a match with either "Young Corbett" or Jimmy Britt, the latter preferred. A fight between the Nelson-Herrera fight was scheduled to go on, the Butte City Council attempted to stop it by filing a complaint against Manager Billy Nolan of the Montana Athletic Club. A warrant was issued for his arrest on a charge of violating the city ordinance prohibiting prize fights, but Chief of Police McMillan refused to serve it. The Mayor was appealed for, but he declined to order the Chief of Police to serve the warrant, saying that the City Council had deferred action too long.

DIXON COLLEGE

Night School
Commences
September 12th.

FITTING the student to fit a position is the first and most important matter. It then becomes a matter of absolute duty to find the student the position. The President of Dixon College has perhaps taught more young men and women who hold high positions in the business world than any other teacher in California. He has never been troubled to place the student who was prepared. There is now a demand for his students greater than the supply.

The Faculty is composed of Successful Teachers—men and women of Experience who are high in their profession. The College is in a brand new building—the finest of its sort in Oakland. The College furniture is new and represents the latest improvements in school equipment. The rooms are clean, bright, and airy. The floors are polished. The blackboards are dustless. Life in Dixon College is healthful and pleasant. There is no smaller institution in the whole State which is superior in these respects.

The course of study is comprehensive yet not too heavy. We teach Business. We make business men and business women.

Gregg Shorthand is the most scientific system yet evolved, and is endorsed by the world of business as superior. It is the only system of shorthand taught in the College, yet the President is a master of three other systems.

The Academic embraces Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Spelling, Geography, History, Physiology, and the other studies necessary to a rounded Academic education. It is especially designed to equip those who for various reasons are incompetent in these elementary studies.

The course in Bookkeeping and Business Practice is modern and practical. When a student graduates from Dixon College he or she is prepared to enter the business world, not as a novice seeking experience, but as a person competent to begin the activities of actual business.

Penmanship is given the importance its importance place in business would require. All students of the regular course take part in the daily drill.

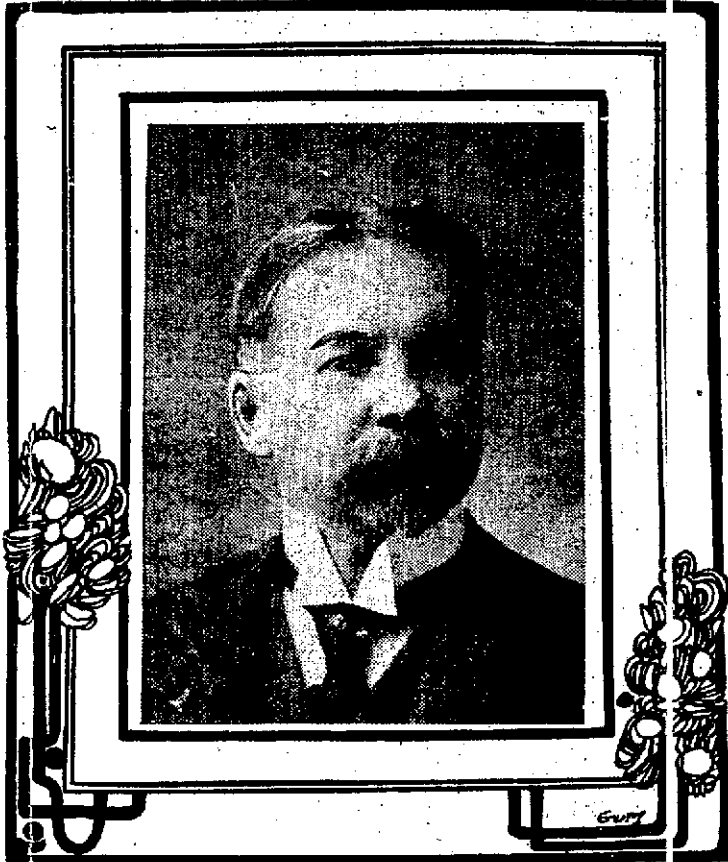

The Advertising course is the only one in the world taught orally in classes. The subject is developed scientifically and interestingly. Every business man should know the great underlying principles of Advertising, and Dixon College offers its course in this study as superior to any taught in the world. Students of the Eastern Correspondence schools are especially desired to investigate our claims.

One month's free tuition is given to demonstrate our superiority as a business college. Take this month free. If you are not convinced, then be sure your position will be found and that you will be safely placed in the business world at a lucrative salary.

H. C. CAPWELL BACK FROM EASTERN TRIP.

H. C. CAPWELL.

Confident Roosevelt Will Be Elected —Now is the Time to Vote For Bonds.

H. C. Capwell, head of the large department store of that name and president of the Board of Trade, has returned from the East in company of Frank C. Havens of the Realty Syndicate, Most of Mr. Capwell's time was spent in New York, where he had an opportunity to observe the trend of national politics and to observe business conditions.

"Straw votes," says Mr. Capwell, "show, in my opinion, that Roosevelt will carry New York by a handsome majority. So sure am I that the Empire State will go Republican that I bet a friend of mine a dinner for six that Roosevelt would carry the State. When I return to New York in the winter I anticipate dining at the other fellow's expense. While many of the leading papers are apparently in favor of Parker, the sentiment of the people is growing daily. What ever sentiment there was in favor of Parker is dying out and a steady reaction in favor of Roosevelt is taking place."

"What pleases me more than anything else is the upward trend of business. There was a comparative lull in trade about New York for the last six months, but recently there has been a vigorous upward tendency and it shows no signs of abatement. It is the business conditions in the South and West are better than they are in the East. The property which has been engaged in the Southern and Western sections has reached New York, however, and the metropolitan world undoubtedly enjoy a long season of good times. With the election of Roosevelt there will be a season of prosperity commencing which will continue uninterrupted for many months."

"One of the things which impressed me very much was the amount of advertising that Los Angeles is getting. Easterners are rapidly getting the idea that Los Angeles is a very large part of California. It is our southern neighbors continue to boom their city as they have in the past, the rest of California may wake from a Rip Van Winkle sleep to find that Los Angeles is the largest city on the coast."

"Oakland, I am sorry to say, has been at the lag end of the procession. We have no chance now to do something for our home city. The bond proposition is before us and I think that the greatest wisdom that can be shown by the people of this municipality is to vote for every one of the projects and get into the industrial procession. The issuance of bonds will place us very near the top. Now is the appointed time for every friend of Oakland to show his civic pride. Let us give the bonds a boost which will make their carrying successful beyond our expectations."

"Of course, I dropped in on the Fair. It is a gorgeous spectacle. The only criticism which I could offer is that the managers may have tried to cover too much ground. There is every reason to be proud of the Alameda county exhibit. It compares more than favorably with the exhibits of any other county. It ranks well among the very first exhibits at the Fair and will have much to do in giving out a creditable impression of the resources of Alameda county to Easterners."

"While in Cincinnati I had the opportunity of attending the largest grand lodge of Elks ever held. During the parade, which was a magnificent affair, the business men vied with each other in offering us refreshments. There were many things done at the meeting of the order which were commendable. Those things which in the past have invited criticism were dispensed with and other things which would assist in perfecting the ideals of the order were adopted."

"As to my business, which was the principal reason of my going East, I would say that I have stocked up with the finest goods that the East affords, and I will prefer to lose money in being overstocked with the best instead of losing money because the people could not buy what they wanted at my store. The policy of the Lacey House is to plug hard, advertise much and sell the right goods at the right prices. The Lacey House has now the finest stock in all of its history."

TO LOOK AFTER VISITING KNIGHTS.

The Board of Trade has appointed the following members of the Citizens' Committee of Oakland on the Reception Committee of Oakland to visiting Knights Templar:

Hon. Warren Olney, H. C. Capwell, D. Edward Collins, Hugh Hogan, M. J. Keller, R. P. M. Greeley, George E. Fairchild, J. Tyrrel, E. Bertov, A. S. Cohn, N. A. Koser, R. A. Lett, Otto L. Haase, S. W. Booth, B. Lisner, W. B. Rinehart, C. J. Hesseman, Emil Lehnardt, Dr. C. C. Shinnick, Walter E. Logan, E. J. Stewart, R. P. Bromley, S. M. Dodge, Carey Howarth, J. B. Richardson, E. M. Gibson, Paul Carroll. The members of the committee will wear yellow badges and their duties consist of doing all in their power to make the stay of the visiting Knights in Oakland a pleasant one.

PICKPOCKET AT WORK.

Charles Wilberg reported to Captain of Police Peterson this morning that a pickpocket had stolen his watch some time yesterday, probably during the parade.

STEALS FANCY PIGEONS.

R. E. Nordyke reported to the police this morning that some one stole four fancy bred pigeons from him yesterday.

DAMNED EXAMINATION SET.

The preliminary examination of Savano Damico, charged with stabbing Jose Ferreira in a saloon quarrel, was set for September 21.

The AUTUMNAL SILKS

Silk reigns again. Long live the Queen! The word has gone forth from Paris that silk, deposed when the mannish vogue prevailed, has again come to her own, and we hasten to swear allegiance.

One cannot with positiveness say that this or that weave or effect is most correct. Soft finishes, however, no matter what be the weave, stand nearest the throne, and with good reason. So many are the puffs and frills, the drapes and tucks, the shirring and ruffles on even the simplest street suit, that to use a stiff silk would be impossible. And this reminds us that for the elaborate fullness of autumn frocks the old dress patterns of fourteen yards will not suffice. Eighteen or even twenty-four yards are now in demand.

In suitings, small checks, mesalline poplins and taffetas, and embroidered and seeded effects are most popular. Warp prints, Dresden louisines, chambray glazes, and figured and broadened mesallines are in demand for more elaborate costumes.

Fall's wonderful shades have been woven into her silken fabrics. They have the soft sheen of hazy days, the opalescence of the autumn dawn, the brilliancy of foliage touched by the breath of September. There are chestnut and golden browns, copper, lizard green and the darker myrtle green, red in plum and mulberry shades, and delicate mauves and pearls.

Autumnal silks—silks that Paris approves and New York adopts—are here in widest variety.

WANT MINISTER OF LABOR.

TRADES UNION CONGRESS PASSES A STRONG RESOLUTION.

LEEDS, England, September 6.—The trades union congress decided at today's session to send a delegate with a fraternal greeting to the international peace congress to be held in Boston. The congress also adopted the following resolution:

"That in the opinion of this congress the time has arrived when a Minister of Labor should be appointed, with cabinet rank, to whom would be entrusted the administration of labor enactments and who would also collect and use such information as the various consuls could supply in regard to labor legislation abroad and would be responsible for taking the initiative on questions such as the adoption of new machinery or in respect to such action as the attempted cornering of raw material so necessary to our industrial prosperity."

WILL VISIT THE FAIR.

Assemblyman J. G. Muttons of Centerville leaves to-morrow morning accompanied by his wife to visit the St. Louis Exposition and Chicago. He expects to be gone until the first of next month. The time will be spent in visiting the principal points of interest at both of these places.

SWIMMING RACES AT THE FAIR.

The Pierce Hardware Company team of Oakland played the Livermores on Sunday afternoon at Livermore, which was won by the latter by a score of 10 to 1. The Livermore boys were in good trim since they knew the Pierces had the name of being the crack team of Oakland and it was with some trepidation that the Livermore boys entered the diamond. ## The Negro Losing Ground.

The New York Age, which is edited by one of the ablest and best informed colored men in America, says the negro is losing his grip on the trades in the South as well as the North; that he is becoming less of an industrial factor day by day—in other words, is losing ground in the struggle for material prosperity. T. Thomas Fortune, the editor of the Age, speaks both from personal experience and study, and he points out a fact that is more or less visible all over the country. An increasing proportion of agricultural products in the South is the fruit of white labor. White men are invading the cotton, rice and cane fields—the special avenues of negro labor—and are steadily crowding the black man out of the skilled trades. Mr. Fortune says:

"We recall a recent visit to Montgomery, first capital of the Confederacy. Twenty years ago there were in that city dozens of negro blacksmiths, many of whom were skillful, even as measured by the advanced standards of the North; and owned large and well-equipped shops and considerable amounts of property in the city and surrounding agricultural district. A diligent search failed to disclose more than two negroes in business. One of these was a survivor of the Louisville and Nashville shops, and the other had dwindled to a remittance in a lazy shanty of his own. The same thing we found true of the harness-makers. Of the large number that Montgomery boasted twenty years ago, only one spiritual—we mean business—survival was found. In the building trades the Negro grimly held his own, still controlling the loosely organized unions; but even here, the Negro contractors reluctantly admitted that the struggle against ampler capital, better business methods and greater skill was infinitely more arduous than ever before. Indeed, the white architects are (as in Memphis) more and more turning business from negro contractors to white ones. A similar state of affairs we are familiar with in the city of Washington; and what is true in Montgomery and Washington, is true 'mutatis mutandis' in Atlanta, Birmingham, Louisville, Baltimore, Philadelphia and many other cities.

"It may be well to glance at this matter by the aid of statistics, which permit a wider and more systematic survey. In the Southern States the number of non-Caucasian carpenters and joiners decreased from 20,591 in 1890 to 10,451 in 1900, or 5.5 per cent. The whites increased from 94,861 in 1890 to 100,459 in 1900, or 5.9 per cent. Among every 1,000 carpenters and joiners in the South, 178 were non-Caucasians in 1890 and 162 in 1900. Nothing could more clearly force the conclusion that in this occupation the Negro is not sustaining competition successfully."

The fact that white mechanics at the South are increasing while colored mechanics are decreasing has a significance discernible to the dulled understanding. Whites are also taking the places of blacks as barbers, bootblacks and waiters. Mr. Fortune ascribes this largely to the negro's own ineptitude and to the lack of proper training given him. There is much to sustain this view, but there are many signs that the negro is at present the victim of a feeling of race repulsion. We see symptoms of it everywhere. There is a disposition to cut the negro out on every side, to leave him to himself and allow him to fish or cut bait in his own fashion. As ninety-nine per cent of negroes belong to the employed class, the effect of race repulsion, which manifests itself in a sort of a negative boycott, is disastrous to the negro. He is finding door after door shut in his face, and he has no key with which to unlock the portals of opportunity.

"What is to be done about it?" asks Mr. Fortune. He answers himself in this fashion:

"The things to be done are of course, (1) to train negro artisans in industrial schools like Hampton and Tuskegee, and to equip in those schools negro teachers of trades and industries and manual training; (2) to stimulate the college-bred negro of appropriate abilities to a career as entrepreneur; (3) to rebuke the insensate prejudices of certain classes of urban negroes against work, and place upon the successful negro contractor and builder that halo of social esteem which is auspiciously fading on the brow of the ward politician."

Possibly the negro is suffering from too many people trying to do things for him in too many ways. Perhaps he is being taught to depend too much upon others and too little upon himself. He might take a leaf out of the hard experience of the Jews. The negro's faculties and capabilities should be developed, but at the same time he should be taught to depend more upon his own industry than on philanthropy, more on his individual character and capacity than upon laws; more upon the acquisition of property than upon politics; more upon applying learning to some practical use than to the acquirement of fugitive learning that has no purpose; more upon the possession of a bank account that the right to sit in the same row at the theatre or at the same table in a hotel with white men. The negro has been led—largely by ill-advised friends—to begin at the wrong end, to begin climbing the hill at the top. In consequence, the sons of many negro mechanics who learned their trades in slavery have learned the trades and are shooting craps or waiting on table for a living; they can read, and their fathers could not, but they can't shoe a horse, lay brick or shove a jackplane.

But three weeks' time is left 'or voters to register, if they desire to vote next November. Several thousand voters in Alameda County are still unregistered. Those who have not qualified themselves to exercise the franchise should do so at once.

Triumph of the Associated Press.

Again has the Associated Press demonstrated its superiority as an agency for the collection and transmission of early important news. No other news agency on either side of the Atlantic has approached it during the present war in obtaining and transmitting the earliest news of important events. The special correspondents have not scored once, and Reuters and the Central News Agency, both European organizations, have lagged continually in the rear and frequently victimized their subscribers with wild canards. The Associated Press has not only been invariably first, but it has been uniformly correct.

The Associated Press alone supplied the public with news of the progress of the battle at Liao Yang, the greatest and most prolonged conflict of modern times. From no other source could authentic news be obtained. Journals which do not belong to the Associated Press were compelled to rely upon earlier editions of papers belonging to the Associated Press for their war news. They were consequently always a lap behind and their news has invariably lacked completeness.

One reason for the success of the Associated Press is the perfection of its organization and the amplitude of its preparations. For another, it has earned the confidence of both the Japanese and Russians by the fairness of its report and its strict observance of good faith. It has not manufactured news nor colored the narration of events to please either side or to serve speculative purposes. It has diligently sought the facts and has given forth the details in an impartial record. Its triumph is therefore not only the reward of enterprise but is a vindication of true journalism.

To Mr. Paul Cowles, who has directed the Associated Press bureau at the seat of war, is due much of the credit of the success achieved. The efforts of Mr. Cowles have been directed by foresight, tact, enterprise and a keen perception of the requirements necessary to success. A trained newspaper man himself, he has a true appreciation of what constitutes news and a keen perception of the points from which it is likely to emanate. He unerringly locates the sources of correct information and keeps in touch with them. The Associated Press made a wise selection when it sent him to the Orient.

The report that Kuropatkin is in a "trying position" seems to be well founded. He is trying to get away.

The Measure of True Hospitality.

The Knights Templar Conclave has brought to California an unusually large number of unusually intelligent people. They come from every part of the Union, and are representative of the better elements in the localities whence they come. For the most part they are people with means who have had opportunities of travel and observation. It is but natural that Californians should desire to make a good impression on these strangers within their gate.

That our visitors will be received with the heartiest hospitality throughout the State may be taken for granted; Californians have never been lacking in either hospitality, geniality or liberality. But in the warmth of our greeting and the exuberance of our conceit let us not forget that the finest thing in hospitality is perfect courtesy. The point of this lies in the fact that we have been too much accustomed in the past to ask our visitors how they like us before they have scarcely warmed the seats in our parlors or had a fair opportunity to make our acquaintance. We demand to know what they think of California when they have hardly crossed our borders and have seen but little of the State; we have manifested a frank egotism, an eager desire for praise that has marred welcomes as generous and hearty as were ever extended in any land by any people. In this we have departed from the letter if not the spirit of courteous breeding.

There are many evidences that we are overcoming a bad habit. There has been as yet no pronounced asking for praise: during the visit of the Knights Templar, and we hope there will be none. We will make a better impression by making our visitors think we are glad to see them than by asking them if they are glad to see us. It is not what they tell us to our faces and say to the newspaper reporters that counts; it is what they tell their friends and neighbors when they return home. What we want is not the lip service of present politeness, but the good will, the friendly esteem and the grateful feeling that a departing guest, who has been hospitably welcomed and entertained with gracious cordiality carries away in his heart. The hospitality of Californians and the beauties of California will be all the more appreciated if our visitors are permitted to draw their own conclusions and express them in their own way in their own time. The wine will have all the better bush if we refrain from asking the guest to praise it at the table.

Neither is this inconsistent with a business spirit. If any visitor desires to spy out places for investment, let him be shown the best goods in the shop—only let him signify his wishes first. The point is our attitude should not be expressed in this way: "Glad to see you; make yourself at home; can't I sell you something?" This attitude is likely to cheapen our hospitality and in the end to lessen the chance of trade. Our welcome should be apart from selfish considerations and wholly lacking in the spirit of sordidness. When they have done this Californians will have given a finer touch to their hospitality and established a larger claim on the good opinion of their visitors.

It is now denied that David B. Hill called the President a fraud in one of his public speeches. It does not matter greatly. The average person cares very little what David B. Hill says about the President or anything else. The American people have made up their minds about President Roosevelt—and also David B. Hill. It is all the same to them whether Hill said "fraud," or "peanuts."

By a miscue in the make-up an article from the Los Angeles Graphic criticising the methods by which Henry T. Oxnard was eulogized out of the nomination for elector on the Republican ticket was printed in yesterday's TRIBUNE without proper credit.

Apparently Kuropatkin believes the best way to whip the Japs is to give them absent treatment, but they exhibit a striking reluctance to taking it.

IT IS A GOOD MOVE.

A good move on the part of the various improvement organizations of Oakland was their decision to stand by the th Hayward Board of Trade in its support of the proposed Oakland and Hayward scenic boulevard. The matter is being fully discussed, and will come up for final action before the Board of Supervisors next Wednesday. The completion of this road, and the building of the Mines and Foot-hill road, out of Livermore, will do much for Alameda County. It will give employment to a large number of men, and the later enterprise will open up new enterprises which will give employment to hundreds of workmen for all time.—Washington Press.

The letter of Miss Merkle, whose picture is printed above, proves beyond question that thousands of cases of inflammation of the ovaries and womb are annually cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Gradual loss of strength and nerve force told me something was radically wrong with me. I had severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said that I had ovarian trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation. I strongly objected to this and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found that my judgment was correct, and that all the good things said about this medicine were true, and day by day I felt less pain and increased appetite. The ulceration soon healed, and the other complications disappeared, and in eleven weeks I was once more strong and vigorous and perfectly well. My heartiest thanks are sent to you for the great good you have done me."—Sincerely yours, Miss MARGARET MERKLEY, 275 Third St., Milwaukee, Wis.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Hints for the Ladies.

Sour milk removes ink stains.

White china silk washes like a handkerchief.

If sponge be sanely made it washes like linen.

To make cut glass glisten and sparkle it should be sprinkled with sawdust and then rubbed with chamomile.

Delicate colored silks should never be laid away in white paper, as the chloride of lime used in bleaching the paper often draws out the color.

Grease marks can be removed from books by sponging the soiled leaf with benzine, placing it between two sheets of blotting paper and passing a hot iron over it.

Thin slices of brown or gluten bread lightly buttered and then spread with cream cheese make delicious sandwiches to serve with lettuce and tomato salad.

If collars and cuffs are threaded on a piece of tape or string and tied to the clothes line it prevents dirty peg marks and also does not pull the ends of the collars out of shape.

Dark spots on mahogany may be removed by being touched with a feather dipped in oil of vitriol diluted with twice its quantity of water. The spot should be well and quickly rubbed.

Always keep a small board sprinkled with salt and water at hand when ironing. If the iron be passed two or three times over the salt on the board the roughness often noticeable when it has been used for a length of time will be removed.

It is recommended that a little vinegar be added to the water in which stockings are rinsed after being washed. The stockings should then be dried wrong side out. Colored stockings will be unfaded and black ones will retain their original luster.

Don't allow your washstand, if it possesses a marble top (or your marble chimney piece) to remain with ugly stains upon it, when by making a paste of vinegar and whiting, which you spread over the surface and leave on for twenty-four hours, you can make it perfectly clean.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Easy-going men usually go the wrong way.

No noose is good news to the convicted murderer.

Patience is an uneventful way that leads to success.

Some men will never miss the water if the beer holds out.

An engagement ring is a girl's idea of a round of pleasure.

If the toughs were all arrested our jails would be filled with beefsteaks.

A man who probably knows says that there is no meal so expensive as a free lunch.

If it is true that male mosquitoes do not bite, a good many of them have been put out of business by mistake.

Oh yes, the shoe pinches both feet.

"Why does the shoe pinch?"

Because the lady sacrificed comfort for style. Isn't it sad?

Because she did not know that we combine comfort with style in every shoe we make.

"How can you do that?"

No, she did not; but she does now, and hereafter she will buy all her shoes from us, and get a shoe that is both comfortable and stylish. As we own our own factory, she will also be saved 30%.

HAPPINESS.
(The following was written by a 12-year-old boy, who is now a resident of York.)

Happiness is a little bird, Of brilliant plumage and gay, That, when you try to catch him, Hops on a little way.

Some try in net of marriage This little bird to catch; But only too late wake up In a mill-assorted match.

Others try the salt of money To put upon his tail; But like the poor, deluded child, They invariably fail.

Many with lime of pleasure Attempt the bird to snare; But when you're sure you have him, You find he isn't there.

Now if you really want him, Tell him you want to do— Try to make him go to others, And he will come to you.

NATIVE SONS PLAN MANY EVENTS FOR FRIDAY.

C. K. TOWNSEND OF THE DEcoration COMMITTEE OF THE NATIVE SONS.

Parade Will Be An Interesting Affair—Regatta on Lake in Afternoon.

Admission Day, September 10, will be a festive day for Oakland. Not only will the Native Sons and Native Daughters from the various parades throughout the bay take part, but the thousands of Knights Templar who are now visiting in San Francisco, will be here to participate in the celebration. It will be the biggest day ever recorded in the history of Oakland.

The brilliancy and beauty of the occasion, the uniformed knights, the waving banners and flags, the parades and electric lights will be enhanced by the throngs of visitors and residents. The Celebration Committee of the Native Sons which has in charge the arrangements for the Admission Day events, has been actively at work less than two months yet has accomplished an astonishing amount of results. Resident Oaklanders will not doubt be surprised at the extent and completeness of the celebration. It will consist of several distinctive features all blending into one gala occasion which will quite completely occupy the hours from early in the evening of September 8th until the morning of September 10.

The celebration committee work here is supplemented by a committee of the San Francisco parades which have arranged to come here, twenty-four in number. These parades are to indulge in parade down Market street in San Francisco on the evening of the 8th, and then take the boat for Oakland. More than 2500 members in uniforms are expected that evening to land at the foot of Broadway where they will be met by local Native Sons and Native Daughters and escorted to the City Hall where the key of the city will be presented to them. Then the various twenty-four parades are to be escorted to as many different halls where they will make their headquarters.

A band concert will be provided at City Hall park that evening and a vaudeville entertainment in the Regatta Club building, admission to the latter being by badge of members of the order. When it is stated that there is to be no drum corps here it may be expected that there will be no lack of music.

Then as the natives march through the streets of Oakland fireworks will be set off and thousands of electric lights gleam in addition to those usually seen. Day fireworks are to be a feature of the parade on the 9th.

THE PARADE.
This parade on Admission Day is to be as pretty and musical and as complete with features as can be imagined. It will be in charge of Grand Marshal M. H. Squires of San Francisco whose headquarters will be at Second and Broadway where the procession will form and start from. A mounted police squad will lead the way captured by Chief Hodgkins and be followed by a squad of foot-police under command of Sergeant Lynch, each member of which is to be a Native Son. The Chief of Staff of the parade is to be H. N. Gard of this city and his chief aides will be George H. Mason and C. F. Carl, each of the twenty-four aides will assist in formation and marching.

The first division of the procession is to include a battalion of the Twenty-eighth United States Infantry with band from the Presidio. The second division will include the Fifth Infantry, N. G. C. battalion, comprised of the local companies of the regiment and Company A Veteran Reserve, all led by the regimental band.

There will follow carriages containing Governor Pardee, Mayor Olney, the Grand Officers of the Native Sons and Native Daughters, members of the Oakland City Council, Board of Public Works and Alameda County Board of Supervisors.

FORMING IN LINE.
The scheme of forming a procession of Native Sons and Native Daughters is easy only to those who have never attempted it. Quite naturally each parlor wishes "the right of the line," hence a Grand Marshal finds perplexing difficulties to solve. In the parade of Friday the Native Sons will be led by California Parlor No. 1 and parlor will follow in numerical order, except that the parlor of Sacramento, San Jose and Section will be given right of line. The same rule will apply as to Native Daughters.

In the two last divisions will be congregated the Alameda county parlor, those from up-country in the lead, those from Alameda, Berkeley and Oakland bringing up the rear. The line of march will be definitely decided upon and announced later.

After the parade there will be an address of welcome from a platform on south side of Oakland High School, by Mayor Olney. The responses will be by Grand Vice President Gallagher of the Native Sons and Grand President Ella Caminetti of the Native Daughters. An invitation has been extended to Governor Pardee to also make an address.

THE REGATTA.
Later in the afternoon the finest regatta ever held on Lake Merritt will be witnessed by as many thousands as can find standing room within view.

The New Tailored Suits

This season those desiring to make their selections earlier for immediate wear have every advantage.

From a style standpoint there is no reason for further delay. In fact, many of the prettiest novelties in Weavers shown now cannot be had later on account of the limited amount of material manufactured. The demand for this class of goods greatly exceeds the supply.

New models have been arriving daily and added to our extensive collection of the most fashionable styles that will be worn the coming season.

We are showing a very clever line at $14.95. Another at $17.50 and others up to $60.00.

MURDERED BY BELIEVE BOY TO WOMAN BADLY HUSBAND. HAVE BEEN FRIGHTENED.

YOUNG WIFE IS KILLED IN PRESENCE OF MOTHER AND SISTER.

ITHACA, N. Y., September 6.—Jesse Baker, aged 23, has shot and killed his young wife. Mrs. Baker, her mother and sister were returning from the fair grounds. While walking a short cut through an orchard Baker suddenly encountered them and drawing a revolver, wounded his wife. Her mother and sister unsuccessfully attempted to take the revolver.

After shooting at his sister-in-law, he fired again at his wife, killing her instantly. Baker then fled. His wife left him recently because of his drunken habits.

YOUTH IS LAST SEEN IN CONVERSATION WITH TWO STRANGE MEN.

NEW YORK, September 6.—What may develop into another Italian kidnapping case has been reported to the Bronx police. Antonio Laduro, 8 years old, son of an Italian employed by a contractor, has disappeared and no trace of the boy has yet been found. He was walking near home with a younger brother when two men engaged him in conversation. Their appearance alarmed the younger boy, who ran away and told of the affair when Antonio failed to return.

There are five thousand Italians in the settlement and all became greatly wrought up when the news spread. The elder Laduro, in reporting to the police, was inclined to believe that his son was merely lost, and the Black Hand Society had nothing to do with his disappearance.

MRS. S. O. LONGWELL ATTACKED IN HER HOME BY A STRANGER.

The residence of S. O. Longwell, inspector of the Oakland Transit Company, at 3819 Grove street, came near being the scene of a tragedy last night. Just after supper Mrs. Longwell was seated in her dining-room, together with two sisters of her husband and a gentleman who had dined at the home, when the door-bell rang. Carrying her baby in her arms, Mrs. Longwell answered the bell. As she opened the door an unknown man forced himself into the hall and attempted to grasp her by the throat. Mrs. Longwell ran screaming into the dining-room, where she fainted. The man, who had closely pursued her, ran into the dining-room, but seeing others present turned and ran from the house.

On account of his attack being so sudden, neither Mrs. Longwell nor her guests could give much of a description of the intruder other than to say that he wore a dark suit of clothes and wore his hat pulled low over his eyes.

GEORGE WILSON CUT OVER EYE.
George Wilson, a ship carpenter, residing at 320 Castro street, was severely cut above his right eye Sunday night by an Italian with whom he got into an altercation. The trouble occurred at Eighth and Broadway and came over a demand made by the Italian for five cents, which Wilson claimed he did not owe.

BERKELEY, September 6.—Another common has been created among the co-eds of the State University by W. T. Hale, the editor of the college daily, who declares several of the young women "offended good taste and courtesy" by walking out of a university meeting. The following is the editorial:

"Those who were present at Friday's University meeting noticed that when the first speaker had sat down there was a general rush for the door made by the young women who had gathered in the balcony of Harmon gymnasium. In fact, they could not help but notice it. So marked was the exodus, and so long continued, that the second speaker was obliged to pause for a few moments until he could make himself heard. He even felt called upon to say that he 'did not blame them,' by way of relieving the embarrassment."

"Now, this is not the first time that such an occurrence has taken place. Something very similar happens with monotonous regularity at nearly every University meeting of the term. To say that such an act is discourteous to the speaker is putting it mildly. It is more than that. It is almost an affront. President Wheeler and the University are put to a great deal of trouble and expense to secure desirable speakers for the meetings, speakers whose presence and whose words will exert a broadening and beneficial influence on the students. The least that the students can do is to maintain a behavior sufficiently courteous so that the speakers will not feel embarrassed or put out of countenance by outward interruptions.

"Doubtless the young ladies who offended at Friday's meeting were in a hurry to get home for lunch or had things they wished to do before lunch. This is absolutely no excuse. Attendance at University meetings is not obligatory. If you have other things to do, you can stay away. But if you do come, you are under a very distinct obligation to remain until the meeting is over. Let us have no more offenses against good taste and courtesy."

GOLDEN GATE, September 6.—Bay Tree Camp, Woodmen of the World, is making a determined campaign for increased membership. It being the intention to initiate at least twenty new members on the 20th of this month.

From present appearances it seems probable that even that number will be exceeded, as eighteen or more applications are on file and several more are promised.

At the last meeting a "smoker" was given which was largely attended.

The camp has avoided that state of stagnation which besets so many lodges in small towns and is usually fatal in its effects. On the contrary, Bay Tree Camp is constantly growing and the interest of the members is kept alive by the fraternal spirit which is infused into the work. Other entertainments are being planned, which will serve to attract the attention of the people to the society and aid in the campaign for new members.

OPENING OF PARSONAGE.

The "house warming" which occurred last night at the opening of the new M. E. parsonage was largely attended. Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Hill proved the most genial of hosts and all who were present greatly enjoyed the event.

An excellent musical and literary program was rendered and refreshments were served. The fact that "the latch string would always hang out" was impressed upon the visitors by the hospitable minister and his family.

The parsonage is one of the handsomest edifices in the town and the members of the M. E. church are delighted beyond measure at having been able, through the co-operation of the trustees and the generosity of subscribers to the building fund, to erect so cozy and elegant a home for the pastor and his family.

HAYWARDS, September 6.—All important arrangements for the reception of the Supreme Council, I. D. E. S., which will convene in this city during the week commencing Monday, September 12, have been completed, and the only preparations that yet remain to be made are in the minor details, and they will probably be brought to a close during the first part of this week.

The committees having the work in charge have labored earnestly to make the affair a success, and the arrangements are carried out as planned there is little doubt that it will surpass anything of a similar nature that has taken place in this section for years. The merchants are fully aware of the increase in business which the advent of 1000 people will cause in the city, and are extending every effort to make their stores as attractive as possible to the visitors. Arrangements have been made to have all the business houses suitably decorated for the occasion, and in the evening the lights will be so placed that the city will be illuminated in every part.

It is understood that the parade on Tuesday will be one of the largest that has been held in this country.

THOUSANDS AT WORK IN THE HOP FIELDS. FLAMES DESTROY A MILK PLANT.

PORTLAND, Ore., September 6.—More than 40,000 people, men, women and children have entered the hopfields of Oregon and begun the harvest of hops. The crop is conservatively estimated at $7,000,000 bales. It is the most valuable crop ever raised in this state, being worth at present prices almost $4,000,000.

SEATTLE, Wash., September 6.—Today the harvest of the Washington hop crop will begin. It is estimated that 10,000 pickers will be required. Reports show the condition of the crop generally to be good, though there has been a shrinkage in some localities. Estimates put the prospective crop at 41,500 bales, an increase of 5000 bales over last year. Prices are high, instances being known where growers have refused 25¢ a bushel.

CATTLE KING'S FATHER DIES.

NEW YORK, September 6.—John Clay, of Ketchesters, father of John Clay, Jr., the wealthy Chicago cattle merchant, is dead, says a Herald dispatch from London. His agricultural interests were among the most extensive in Scotland.

CHESHAM, Wash., September 6.—The plant of the International Milk Condensing Company was destroyed by fire which broke out this morning at a little after midnight. The boiler house, boiler water tank and office were saved. The loss is $65,000, with between $40,000 and $50,000 insurance.

EMERYVILLE, September 6.—The old saying that "coming events cast their shadows before" is exemplified here.

The coming race meet has the effect of increasing business in all lines, and new stores are springing up with every passing day.

It is understood that in the neighborhood of six or eight new businesses will be instituted here within the next few months, and several business blocks are being constructed to accommodate them.

Street improvements have served to put the town in much better shape, and the work will be continued until all the thoroughfares are in the best of condition.

The city hall grounds have been put in splendid shape and present a fine appearance.

Within a month the town will be very lively, as horsemen are arriving in great numbers and are bringing with them in most cases, horses to enter at the coming meet.

CLAREMONT, Wash., September 6.—The plant of the International Milk Condensing Company was destroyed by fire which broke out this morning at a little after midnight. The boiler house, boiler water tank and office were saved. The loss is $65,000, with between $40,000 and $50,000 insurance.

APPLE CROP IS ON THE INCREASE. BATTLESHIPS ARE WANTED BY FRANCE.

NEW YORK, September 6.—Reports of the apple crop received here by large dealers indicate that the American yield will be about 20 per cent larger than last year and 10 per cent above the average for the last ten years. Some dealers estimate the output at 70,000,000 barrels.

New York State is among the largest apple producers in the East. It is estimated that this crop will be 17 per cent larger than that of last year.

Exports of apples last year were valued at $6,237,894, but crop conditions in Europe this season are reported good and the demand possibly will be less.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Tea.

NEW YORK, September 6.—Fresh proposals have been made by a French agent for the purchase of the battleship Fusyrdon and Belgrade, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina. It is said the offer provides that the vessels are to be delivered in France and remain in a French port until after the termination of the war in the East.

Rather Seedy.

A farmer had a seeder for the sowing of his seed.

"Was a seeder made of cedar, and said I, 'Pray, is there seed?' Of a seeder made of cedar?" Said the farmer, "Yes, indeed!"

I never never seed a seeder, sir, that I'd concede the speed

To exceed a cedar seeder for the seedin' of the seed."

WM. H. HIGH MAY RESIGN FROM COMMISSION.

WM. H. HIGH.

Well Known Banker Has Been Offered Local Managership of the International Banking Co.

State Bank Commissioner William H. High of this city has been tendered the position of San Francisco Manager of the International Banking Company. The position is an important one and carries with it a large salary. Mr. High, however, has the offer under consideration and will not make up his mind for several days whether he will accept the position.

For a number of years Mr. High was connected with the Union National Bank. In June 1903, Governor Pardee appointed Mr. High, Bank Commissioner for a term of four years. Since he has been in office the commissioner has examined banks all over the State. He has demonstrated his ability as a banking man and has made a reputation among financiers for his thoroughness and accuracy in examining banks. It has been a matter of comment that Commissioner High has been an ideal official as well as a fair but strict and conscientious examiner. Should he resign he will be missed from the commission.

Already there are several applicants for the position among whom is J. Cal Ewing, secretary of the commission.

MRS. ADAMS GIVES A LUNCHEON.

MRS. GOODFELLOW GIVES A LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF MRS. VALENTINE.

Bay Place, the beautiful home of Mrs. John Adams, was the scene of a most delightful affair today, a luncheon full of unique surprises and served in a most artistic setting.

Every gleam of daylight was excluded from the room and above the large circular table a huge canopy was formed of foliage and the green dome was studded with multi-colored electric lights. Sweet peas and white lilies were the flowers chosen for the decoration.

A circular opening in the center of the table was carefully concealed from the guests until suddenly the daintiest little maid appeared, who was laden with a basket of flowers and a unique horseshoe cast for each guest. When the fortunes had been dispensed a "Toreador" appeared in his native costume and accompanied his song of sunny Spain on his guitar.

Musicians concealed among the flowers on the porch played during the luncheon with delicate effect. Those who participated in the happy affair included Mrs. Selden S. ## ALAMEDA NATIVES PLAN A MINSTREL SHOW.

Latest News From the Island City—Personal and Social Notes.

ALAMEDA, September 6.—Halcyon Parlor, No. 146, Native Sons of the Golden West, is planning a minstrel performance to be given on Friday and Saturday evenings, October 14 and 15.

From what can be learned of the affair it will certainly be one of the most elaborate attempts of the kind that has ever taken place in Alameda. It will be held at Armory Hall.

Last year the parlor gave a similar show and as it was a great success, the members decided to repeat it this year on even a larger scale.

In fact they have practically decided to make it a regular annual event, possible, that of the previous year.

Rehearsals are already in progress and the members show the most pronounced enthusiasm in the work.

An attempt will be made to emulate the performance of such old-time favorites in black-face, as Billy Emerson, Haverly and others who have gone before.

By this it must not be understood that the jokes and songs rendered will be "stale, flat and unprofitable," for on the contrary they will be decidedly up to date, as the repertoire is being made up by one of the old-time performers who will be limited.

Some of the best vocalists in this city are members of the parlor and will participate in the performance, as that some unusually good singing may be looked for. It is understood that the second part will be entirely unique in the annals of minstrelsy and although the plans therefore are kept exceedingly dark, there is reason to believe that the expectations of the most sanguine will be more than realized.

The scenery and costumes have been imported from Chicago and New York and are the finest that can be purchased.

THREW ROCKS AT CHINAMEN.
ALAMEDA, September 6.—The Chinese of this city are at present engaged in their annual ceremonies for the expulsion of evil spirits and were therefore not a little incensed when R. J. Anderson was soon placed under restraint however, by Officer Wahnuth and is still locked up pending judgment.

John O'Brien was the third and his bail was fixed at $10.

ALAMEDA, September 6.—Mrs. C. R. Greed of Eagle avenue has recovered in an odd way a purse containing $45 in gold which she lost last April. On Saturday the purse and money turned up in the office of Dr. Clark on Park street, where the place was renovated, and was returned to the owner, much to her gratification. She had visited the office with her baby on the day the coin was lost, and the little child thrust the purse in playful fashion in a crack in the back of the lounge in the reception room where, after four months, it was found.
